CCWD to Laird-July 19 2012.pdf

hey bruce -

I could use your help as we review the next round of BDCP documents. As raised by CCWD in the attached letter, we need to get back into looking at the issue of potential dw impacts from different Delta conveyance scenarios. As Greg says in his letter, there is not complete information readily available, so I am not sending you any specific documents to review right now. I'd like to find a time later this month to catch you up on where things are and discuss how best to involve you in our review process. I'm out from today till August 13 so maybe in the second half of August? Thanks. - Karen
